

Join a network that...

1. Brings women together

- Showcase your profile or business in the RRR Network Directory to connect with fellow members, promote your services, and benefit from regular exposure through our fortnightly newsletter.
- Engage with RRR content by reading, listening, sharing, and commenting on blogs and posts to expand your knowledge and grow your network.
- Join RRR events whenever possible to build relationships and stay connected with the community.
- Take on leadership roles by nominating yourself for Board, Regional Ambassador, or Sub Committee positions when available, and participate in our Annual General Meeting.

2. Develops your skills

- Register for RRR workshops and events as they become available to build skills and connect with others.
- Watch for scholarship opportunities offered by the RRR Network and partners.
- Reach out to the RRR Team for introductions, guidance, or support with your work or projects.
- Subscribe to the RRR Network Newsletter to stay updated on the latest news, opportunities, and events.

Join the Network

For only
$55/year @

rrrnetwork.com.au/join-rrr

3. Celebrates RRR women

- Participate in RRR Network surveys and help spread the word within your own networks.
- Understand and support RRR advocacy goals by engaging in meaningful conversations and using your influence to amplify key issues.
- Wear your RRR Lapel Pin proudly to show your commitment to the RRR Network and your support for rural, regional, and remote women and communities.

RRR NETWORK